There was extensive discussion of the various factors, operational and political, bearing on a proposal to conduct a fairly lengthy staging operation utilizing as a base of operations.

Mr. Bissell said that before any firm conclusion is reached on the timing of such an operation, he would like to have Ops' view on such matters as weather and sun angle; PIC's views on whether or not they desire snow cover to work from; and General Cabell's views. Another consideration is the availability of personnel, particularly LAC, in this period of transfers and between-contract vacations.

ACTION: Ops and Personnel SUSPENSE: 18 November

Other things being equal, Mr. Bissell said he leaned toward a operation commencing in mid-January. Once we have reached a decision on when we wish to undertake this operation, such decision
